English: 1 hr Writing from different perspectives – 3 lessons Today is the first of three lessons where you will be writing about a single event from two different perspectives. Begin by reading Attachment 1 Eye of the Wolf. Your task today is to plan out two diary entries about the events that take place in chapter VI (page 40-42). Begin by planning one from the perspective of Blue Wolf. Think about his opinion of humans and the way he might describe them based on what we have read so far. Use Attachment 2 Diary Entries to write your plan and have a look at the checklist On the second page. Once you have planned out the first entry, repeat the process for one of the hunters. This is trickier as we are not given any information from the perspective of the hunters so you will need to put yourself in their shoes for this task! You will be writing the entries in tomorrow's lesson.	Links/resources: Attachment 1 Eye of the Wolf 08.06.2020. Attachment 2 Diary Entries 08.06.2020.
Maths: 1hr Theme Park Maths Today is the final lesson of our Theme Park Maths unit. Last week, you completed up to the end of Task 5 where you calculated the profits or losses your park made for the first month. Today you will be working on Task 6 where you will need to work out the profit for the remaining 5 months of the season. Write the total profits you calculated at the end of Task 5 in the Month 1 Profit section. Your profits then increase by 10% each month so you will need to start by calculating 10% of your Month 1 Profits (divide them by 10) to work out the increase and add it to the Month 1 Profits to get your Month 2 Profits. You will then need to repeat the process with the Month 2 Profits to get the Month 3 Profits and so on.	Links/resources:
Foundation subject (PSHE): 1 hr How caring a friend are you? Activity 1 – Role-play In order to complete this activity you will need another family member. Select a scenario from Attachment 3 Role-play Feelings – Scenarios. Take it in turns acting out a scenario while the second person responds in two different ways – firstly, in an unhelpful or insensitive way and then in a more helpful, sensitive manner. Think about how you feel after each response. Then swap roles and select a different scenario.	Links/resources: Attachment 3 Role-play Feelings - Scenarios 08.06.2020 Attachment 4 Quiz 08.06.2020

Discuss how the different responses felt. Activity 2 'How good a friend are you?' Quiz *Please get a parent to have a look at Attachment 3 Quiz before you begin. * Further support for issues relating to bereavement can be found at Winston's Wish, a charity that provides bereavement support for children, and training for schools. https://www.winstonswish.org Complete the Attachment 3 Quiz. Were you a good friend? Think about the pros and cons of each of the responses. Why do you think a particular response might be more or less helpful to a caring friendship? Stick the completed sheet in your workbook. Activity 3 Top Ten List The final activity is to write a list of the Top Ten things that you think make a good friend in your workbook.
